Re: Request for Public Records dated 08/25/18

Received by the Town on 08/27/18

Request Number: 18-013

Dear Robert Teel,

I just wanted to touch base with you and let you know that we are working on fulfilling your records request, dated 08/25/18. On August 31, 2018, I sent a letter acknowledging receipt of your request. In that letter I anticipated a response to a first installment by September 14, 2018. The First Installment of records responsive to your request was too large to send via email, and was provided via US Mail, on September 12, 2018, as a CD-ROM. The Second Installment of records responsive to your request was too large to send via email, and was sent via US Mail, on September 28, 2018. Included with the CD-ROM was a letter informing you the Town anticipated a third installment would be provided by 5:00 pm on October 19, 2018. On October 19, 2018 the Town sent a payment reminder notice informing you that the third installment would be provided once the first two installments had been claimed. The Town received payment for the fees related to the first two installments on November 6, 2018. The third installment of records responsive to your request was too large to send via email, and was sent via US Mail, on November 7, 2018. Included with the CD-ROM was a letter informing you the Town anticipated a fourth installment would be provided by 5:00 pm on November 16, 2018. On December 14, 2018 the Town sent a payment reminder notice informing you that the fourth installment would be provided once the third installment had been claimed. The Town received payment for the fees related to the third installment on December 27, 2018. The fourth installment was mailed on Wednesday, January 2, 2019. Included in the fourth installment was a letter informing you the Town anticipated a fifth installment would be provided by 5:00 pm on January 18, 2019. Payment was received for the fourth installment on January 23, 2019.

Fifth Installment:

The Town provides you with a Fifth Installment of records responsive to your request as follows:
